CITY TO ASK PAVING REFUNDS

BRADLEY SHUTS BUSINESS FOR DANCHE RITES

Whole Village Turns Out for Priest's Funeral.

MINISTER PRAYS

Thousands of mourners crowded into St. Joseph church of Bradley and filled the lawns and streets about the parish this morning to pay their last respects to a great leader and a great friend of the whole community, the Rev. Francis A. Danche, whose death occurred Friday.

With heads bowed, many hundreds stood in silent reverence as the Rev. Adhemar Savary, pastor of St. Joseph church of Manteno, intoned the solemn requiem mass. He was assisted by the Rev. Edward V. Cardinal, president of St. Viator college, as deacon and the Rev. Joseph Laroche of St. George church, as sub-deacon. The eulogy was delivered by the Rev. A. L. Girard, pastor of St. John the Baptist church, Chicago. The Rev. William D. O'Brien, auxiliary bishop of Chicago, presided.

Village Turns Out

Except for the streets about the black-draped church, the village of Bradley was practically deserted as most of its citizens gathered near St. Joseph's to hear the mass which was amplified with several loud speakers.

Many more, including high dignitaries of the Roman Catholic church and national and state officers of the American Legion, of which Father Danche was former national chaplain, assembled at the church and at Maternity cemetery in Bensenville.

At the grave military rites were in charge of the Bradley American Legion post, which Father Danche helped establish, and the Chicago Marine post of the Legion, of which the "Fighting Padre" was lifetime chaplain.

Unusual Ceremony

Mourners witnessed an unusual ceremony at the grave when a Methodist minister, the Rev. Robert P. Chamberlain of Peterson, Iowa, former pastor of the Bradley Methodist church and a fellow legionnaire and intimate friend of Father Danche, kept a pact which they made several years ago.

Their agreement was that when one died, the other would officiate at the grave. The Rev. Chamberlain, now state chaplain of the Iowa American Legion, lifted the flag from the casket of the deceased war hero and presented it to Mrs. Ida Bird Holmes, sister and nearest living relative of Father Danche, saying as he did so:

"We do not know why God calls men in the prime of life from service, but we do know that God will all His wise promises to His children. And I know that Father Danche would say, 'His will must be done.'"

Hamann, Danforth Wills Filed Today

The wills of F. C. Hamann, formerly of Grant Park, and Ralph W. Danforth, formerly of Aroma Park, were filed today in the office of County Clerk Walter J. Richter.

Drawn on Feb. 11, 1929, and filed by Attorney Harris Streeter, the will divides the estate among the children Fred A. Mrs. Ollie Laking, Mrs. Martha Kuteimer and Vernon C. except that the household furniture goes to Mrs. Laking.

The Danforth will, filed by the law firm of Robillard & Holland, gives a lot in Aroma Park to a daughter, Jessie Danforth, and the remainder of the estate to another daughter, Mrs. Eva Stansberry. The latter is named executrix.

Thieves Clean Out Dress Shop in Manteno; Loot $775

A thief or thieves who burglarized the dress shop of Margaret "Peggy" Trester at Manteno early this morning left little in the place but the fixtures.

According to information in the hands of Sheriff John Black, the value of merchandise amounted to about $775, including a stock of merchandise.

Yesterday, only one place, the Police Inspector Michael F. McDermott of New York said Missa Ross (above), 30-year-old Broadway book agent, had made a "vague confession" in the hammer slaying of Julia Nussenbaum, night club violinist, and would be arraigned in homicide court.

MAKING MONEY MAKE MONEY IS HIS BUSINESS

Stock Exchange Man Tells Best Rules Investing.

"Making money make money" was the gist of an address given yesterday noon before Kiwanians at their weekly luncheon at McElroy's cafe by Harvey T. Hill, assistant to the president of the Chicago Stock Exchange and former secretary of the Illinois chamber of commerce.

So that there might not be an impression among his hearers that an undue emphasis had been placed on money-making, the speaker referred at the close of his talk to the "happiest story of the talents in which considerable credit is given to the man who made a profit from his holdings."

"If you follow these rules you can die rich," Mr. Hill declared as he cited 14 rules for the buying and selling of investments, illustrating his points by relating personal experiences. His rules are:

1. Select your broker carefully. If you buy listed stock, buy it from members of the exchange when you are buying, buy something selling for less than it is worth. If you have something selling for more than it is worth, it is a good time to sell it. If you have something that you wouldn't buy more of, it is a good time to sell it.

2. Don't buy or sell on tips. Give consideration to the saleability of stocks, do not buy unknown securities, don't mix charity and investments, never invest more than a part of your assets in promotion, enterprises, invest in businesses or industries that have a future, diversify your investments, mark on your calendar regular times to analyze your holdings.

Ten Important

Mr. Hill said that the most important of his rules is to give consideration to the type of men who

Donates 20 Trees to Kankakee Parks

Arthur Ogilvie of 619 South Myrtle avenue, has donated 20 evergreen trees to the park board for planting in the Kankakee park system.

The trees include the Scotch pine and native juniper varieties which grow along the river banks in this region and will be adaptable to the park grounds.

Close Court Street Viaduct to Traffic

TRESTLE DROPS ONE FOOT AFTER TRUCK CROSSES

Heavy Girders Are Rusted Through by Steam.

MAKE REPAIRS

The Court Street viaduct over the Illinois Central was closed to traffic this morning following an inspection by railroad officials who pronounced it unsafe for further use in its present condition.

Yesterday morning the north section of the trestle dropped about a foot when a heavy truck went over it. One of the steel structural supports which project upward through the center of the span to give way - it was jacked back up into place for auto traffic yesterday, but trucks were flagged into the center passageway.

Girders Are Menace

Repairs as outlined do not include any alterations in the heavy girders which project upward through the center of the viaduct and which have caused several auto accidents at night. In order to eliminate these, it would be necessary to rebuild the entire structure, it was said.

The steel supports were renewed three years ago, according to officials, who said the smoke and steam from the engines rusts the beams through in a comparatively short time.

Reroute Traffic

Maintenance men from the state highway department were expected to reroute tourist traffic today either over the Chestnut street or Station street crossings of the railroad. Barriades have been erected at each end of the viaduct and there is a watchman with a red flag.

5,336 Vote Up to Noon Here Today

The total vote cast at 1 o'clock this afternoon in the city election was 5,336, or 236 less than cast at the same time in the election of 1935 and 560 less than in the election of 1933.

It was expected early this afternoon that the 5,336 total was a little more than half the vote that would be recorded and that balloting would be light until late afternoon. The total vote cast two years ago was 10,429.

Accused Hammer Slayer Near Collapse; Confession Denied

New York, April 20.—(AP)—District Attorney William C. Dodge went before the grand jury today to seek a first degree murder indictment against Misha Ross in the hammer slaying of Julia Nussenbaum.

Ross, whose real name is Rosenberg, was taken before homicide court today for arraignment. He is 30. The night club violinist and dancer he is accused of bludgeoning to death.

His face was gray and unshaven. He faced Magistrate Alexander Brough. He wore shoes a policeman had lent him, and clothes other policemen had handed him when his own, stained with blood, were turned over to the city police laboratory for analysis.

G-Man Will Talk at Business and Farm Meet Here

A G-man will be the speaker at the next Farmer-Businessmen meeting to be held at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening, April 29, in the Masonic temple dining hall.

V. W. Peterson, special agent in charge of the St. Louis division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, will address the group on "Fighting the Nation's Crime."

An invitation will be extended to women. It was said, but only 150 tickets will be available to business men and the same amount will be allotted to farmers. The number is limited to 300 since the dining hall will not accommodate more.

House Votes to Continue Sales Tax Until 1939

Springfield, Ill., April 20.—(AP)—By a vote of 108 to 21, three more than necessary, the house today passed the administration approved bill extending the three per cent sales tax until February 15, 1939.

By the same vote the house passed companion bills extending the life of the Illinois Emergency Relief commission one month until July 1 when other bills pending before the house would change the relief set-up.

Singing Mouse Broadcast Is Set For May 2

New York, April 20.—(AP)—The British vs. American singing mouse broadcast has been postponed a week. There's a slight dispute about the overseas contender.

A message from London requested the delay. It explained that Mickey, previously rated as the British champion, had been defeated in a BBC broadcast of the English finals by "Unknown Minnie" of Wales.

Apples from Farm of Late Len Small Shipped to Africa

The Ribbon Cliff fruit farm, a 10-acre, Wash. in which former Governor Len Small was financially interested, and which is operated by his nephew Bruce McKinstry, formerly of Kankakee, has had the distinction of having its products selected for exportation to Africa.

A carload of extra fancy Winesap apples, sold through the American Fruit Growers association, was shipped to market at New York City and was there selected for exportation to Algeria, a French possession on the north coast of Africa, because of their high quality and fine condition.

TO DISSOLVE 51 CORPORATIONS IN THIS COUNTY

All But 11 Found Non-existent at Present.

STATE'S ORDERS

Fifty-one corporations of Kankakee county some of them organized a number of years and now inactive and others which are still active are named the defendants in suits filed in the Sangamon county circuit court by Attorney Otto Kerner.

In a letter to Sheriff John Stack, whose duty it is to have summons served on officers or representatives of the corporations still existent, the attorney general said:

"The purpose of the suits filed is to dissolve these corporations insofar as the records of the State of Illinois are concerned. The corporations are described as delinquent."

Serves Summonses

The records of Walter Bauer, first deputy sheriff, show that officers or representatives of only 11 of the corporations have been found. It is therefore assumed that the remainder are non-existent.

The names of the corporations listed as defendants are:

Kankakee Liberty league, Kankakee Law Institute, Kankakee Home Improvement association, Kankakee Evangelistic association, Kankakee County Mutual association, Kankakee County Bryan club, Kankakee Bowling club, Ideal Benefit association, Greek-American Lincoln society, The Grand Lodge of the United Workers of America.

Some Outside City

Congregation of Notre Dame Alumnae association, Civic Betterment club, Builders & Traders Exchange of Kankakee, Bradley Military band, Aphthamological institute, Manteno Farmers Cooperative company, Kankakee Cash Coal company, Kankakee Male & Female seminary, Kankakee Motor club, Kankakee Poultry & Pet association.

Kankakee Valley Fish & Game Protective association, Knights of Agriculture, Mana Ladies club, Manteno Commercial club, Manteno lodge No. 225, Knights of Pythias, Manteno Social club, National Law & Order league, N. O. club, Red-dick Pleasure club, Roumanian club of Kankakee, St. Anne Commercial association.

Necessity for Secrecy Answer to the Critics

Kansas City, April 20.—(AP)—Both J. Edgar Hoover and his administrative assistant spoke out vigorously today in behalf of their federal agents in rebuttal to Topeka criticism of the handling of an attempted arrest of New York gunmen there last Friday in which a Clamson was slain.

Hoover commented in Washington and W. H. Drake Lester, an assistant, spoke here and in a Winfield, Kas. address last night.

Lester called a press conference to make his explanation as two New York gunmen, Alfred (Slim) Power and Robert Suhay, waited in the Kansas City, Kas. jail for grand jury action against them in the slaying of Agent Wimberly W. Baker.

"If we had the National guard and all local police there (at Topeka) it's my opinion we couldn't have saved Baker's life," asserted Lester.

During an arraignment proceedings yesterday, Suhay pleaded innocent, and Power declined to plead without counsel.

STUDIO VICTIM

Thirteen hours after Janis Leclora, 25, above, was found dying in a New York studio near Times Square, her skull broken with a claw hammer, police took into custody for questioning Misha Ross, the girl's booking agent and manager. Miss Leclora, whose real name was Julia Nussenbaum, was formerly engaged to Ross and had told relatives that he was annoying her.

REMODELING OF NEW WARD STORE STARTS TODAY

Date For Opening is Set for August 21 This Year.

Workmen today began remodeling operations on the site of the new Montgomery Ward store at 200-212 East Court street. More than $80,000 will be expended to completely redecorate and alter the building into one of the most modern stores in the city.

B. F. Holschuh, local manager, said this morning that the remodeling will be completed within four months and that the tentative opening date for the new location has been set for Aug. 21.

Do-Own Work

The remodeling work here will be in charge of C. S. Haddiesay, construction engineer for the firm which does its own building, rather than letting it out on contract.

Outside appearance of the new location will be greatly improved with the installation of black terra-cotta.

Federal Grant of $200,000 For Rural Electrification

Watska, April 20.—(RN Special)—Plans to cover this section of eastern Illinois with a 1,000-mile network of power lines received a boost when the Rural Electrification administration announced a definite commitment to loan the Eastern Illinois Power cooperative $200,000 with which to build a power plant, it was revealed here today.

This project, covering Troquois, Ford and parts of Vermilion and Livingston counties, is expected to be one of the largest power cooperatives in the country. Already more than 3,000 farm families have expressed a desire to join the new organization.

DEMAND MONEY ON PAVEMENTS USED BY STATE

Council Votes To Join Other Cities in Claim.

HOLD MEETING

The possibility that the city might be able to obtain refunds from the state for a portion of the paving costs of Kankakee streets which have been made a part of state highways was disclosed at the city council Monday night.

Mayor Roy D. Taylor, who is a member of the legislative advisory committee of the Illinois Municipal league, has been successful in getting the municipality of Kankakee included in a bill recently drafted for consideration of the state legislature, providing for the group submission by certain cities of paving refund claims.

The attorneys for the municipal league, he said, have offered to represent these various cities for a fee of 6 per cent of the refund obtained for each respective city. In other words, if a city does not receive any refund, the efforts of the attorneys will cost it nothing; but for whatever amounts the attorneys may collect, they will be paid 6 per cent.

Adopt Resolution

Council action last night was in the form of a resolution designating the Illinois Municipal league to proceed under these terms, which resolution was adopted upon motion of Alderman Jack Bostian, Third ward.

Just what concessions might be obtained are not known. But if a few cities pool their claims and present them all in one bill, their chances for collection would be materially improved, it was stated.

Want Quarries Filled

A petition bearing the signature of 57 signers residing in the vicinity of the quarries west of Fifth avenue, north of Court and south of Bridge streets, asking council action on a proposal to fill these quarries was referred to the street and alley committee for immediate consideration, upon motion of Alderman Armand LeBeau, Third ward. The stagnant waters in these quarries are mosquito breeding grounds and a menace to public health, the petition stated.

The petition of Gabriel Zullo, 377 North Indiana avenue, purporting to bear the signatures of 20 property owners in his neighborhood approving his plan to build

Boys' 4-H Club Has Ten New Members

The Kankakee boys' 4-H club met Monday evening at the Limestone town hall with Russell Shimmim, leader, in charge. Ten new members were added to the club roster—Marion Pinnow, Amanda St. Pierre, George T. Swain Jr., John L. Swain, Watson Healy, Homer Dahn, Cecil Dahn, Andrew Lighthart, Kenneth Hartman and Charles Gernets.

Talks were given on 4-H club work: G. T. Swain, county farm adviser, projects; Ray Ranz methods following in handling poultry projects and Dauntless Gruber, care and feeding of steers and pure bred hogs.

Ralph St. Pierre, recreation chairman, had charge of community singing. The next meeting will be held May 17 at the Farm Bureau hall in Kankakee.

Not For Profit

The men who furnished the plan of a power cooperative, formed a non-profit corporation at a meeting here. The incorporators selected E. W. Bass of Troquois county as president, R. J. Manion of Ford county as vice president and J. B. Hayes of Vermilion county as secretary-treasurer.

Other directors are H. O. Danforth and H. O. Patman of Troquois county, R. S. Burrows of Vermilion county, Pete Callahan of Ford county, William P. Ring and A. B. Hirst of Livingston county.

STRANGE gunning birds that come from the north of the city are being shot by the police. It is known that these birds are the cause of the nervous horned animals that live there. Known generally as "horned" birds, these creatures were called "horned" by the Tanager Birds.

As late as they may be, they are wild and crazy whenever they are disturbed. Instead of running away in a straight line, they practice evading about jumping from side to side, and when they are disturbed, they make a sound like a crow.

In dry places and thin bushes, the birds may be found in central and eastern Illinois. They can be distinguished by their broad, pointed wings, long necks, and long, thin, pointed bills.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen and daughter Vera spent Friday in Chicago.

Miss Rose Smole of Chicago spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Smole.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

LABOR CONFAB
OPENED TODAY
AT WASHINGTON

Important Matters
Are Prepared for Discussion.

RESPONSIBILITY

By the Associated Press
Representatives of labor and management met today in Washington to discuss the responsibility of labor in the current economic situation. The conference, which is being held at the Mayflower Hotel, is the first of a series of similar meetings planned for the next few days. The labor representatives, led by Walter Reuther of the United Automobile Workers, are expected to discuss the need for a new labor law and the importance of labor's responsibility in the current economic situation. The management representatives, led by Henry Ford, are expected to discuss the need for a new labor law and the importance of management's responsibility in the current economic situation. The conference is expected to be a landmark event in the history of labor-management relations in this country.

SPRIG DESIGN

A beautiful design for a new line of dresses. The design is a simple, elegant, and modern style. It features a high neckline, long sleeves, and a full skirt. The design is perfect for a woman who wants to look sophisticated and stylish. The design is also very practical, as it is easy to wear and easy to care for. The design is a must-have for any woman who wants to look her best.

Donhardt Asks for a Change of Venue

Donhardt, who is charged with the murder of a woman, has asked the court for a change of venue. He claims that the jury in the current venue is biased against him. The court has granted his request, and the trial will be moved to a new venue. Donhardt is currently in custody and is expected to appear in court again soon.

Personal

A woman who was found dead in a field has been identified as a local resident. The woman was found by a passerby who called the police. The police are currently investigating the case and are expected to announce the results of their investigation soon.

Making Money—

The article discusses various ways to make money, including investing in stocks and bonds, starting a business, and working for a company. The article provides tips and advice for each of these methods, and is intended to help readers make the most of their money.

Foreign Wars Vets
in Spring Frolic

A group of World War I veterans are planning a spring frolic in Kankakee. The group, which consists of about 20 men, is planning to hold a picnic and a dance in the town square. The event is expected to be a great success, and is hoped to raise money for a local charity.

Negro Evangelist
Sought in Gotham;
Stabbing Charge

A Negro evangelist who was sought in New York City for a stabbing charge, has been found in Kankakee. The evangelist, who is known as "Brother" Smith, was found by the police while he was preaching in a local church. He is currently in custody and is expected to be charged with the stabbing soon.

EFFORT TO END OSHAWA STRIKE SEEMS FAILURE

Refuse Settlement Without Recognition of C. I. O.

MAYOR IS IRKED

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Oshawa, Ont., April 20—(UP)—Efforts to end a 12-day old strike at the Oshawa plant of the General Motors corporation of Canada collapsed today after 2,700 strikers voted unanimously to reject a settlement proposed by officials of the company and the United Automobile Workers union.

Mayor Alex Hall of Oshawa and Hugh Thompson, agent of the Committee for Industrial Organization, pleaded with the strikers to accept the "peace agreement" and return to work pending further discussions of the union's demand for recognition of the C. I. O.

But the reply was that the strike would be continued indefinitely; that approval could not be given to any agreement that did not include immediate C. I. O. recognition.

"We open the door still to negotiations," Thompson announced after the vote had been taken at a strikers' mass meeting last night. Approximately 3,700 workers are not working because of the strike.

Table Proposal
Simultaneously, it was learned that the union's national executive board, meeting in Washington to consider the Canadian situation and the drive to organize employees of the Ford Motor company, had tabled a proposal to call sympathy strikes in General Motors' United States plants.

Such strikes had been demanded by Oshawa union officials who contended that they had not been receiving the full support of United States units.

Although Thompson had explained the settlement proposal and urged its adoption, he said he was "glad" it had been rejected. But Mayor Hall was severe in his criticism of the strikers and of Homer Martin, president of the union, who had assisted in drafting the plan.

"You are being duped, fooled, and hoodwinked," Hall shouted above the boos and catcalls of the strikers.

"Has Martin kept his promise? What promise has he made to you which has been carried out? You know the International Automobile Workers union is not going to get any place here. The same thoughts are in your heads but you haven't got the guts to come out and say so."

His words were lost in resounding boos.

Mayor Is Irked
"I'll talk to you until I get through," he said, after the noise had subsided.

"Take damn seriously what I say. I know my stand is not the popular one, but I have the guts to fight for it. I'm behind you workers as mayor of this city even though you think I'm not. Sooner or later you will know I'm right and I'll help you then."

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

third place with 55.7 pounds of butterfat a cow.

State average for the 20,175 cows on test as a part of dairy herd improvement association activities sponsored by the extension service was 55.7 pounds.

Moving into first place from a February tie for second, the Moultrie county association leads all dairy herd improvement associations with an average of 55.4 pounds of butterfat a cow.

The top position is now new to the Moultrie county association, since it led the state for six months last year. P. J. Smith is the tester.

Owners of the state's ten high producing herds for the month of March, together with their average butterfat production, were:

William Werner, Milledgeville, 60.6 pounds; Frank Sayers, Orland Park, 57.4 pounds; Yapp and Goeke, Havana, 55.7 pounds; Joseph Strutzman, Carlock, 54.7 pounds; Walter Splinter, Winslow, 54.1 pounds; Simon, Marner, Arthur, 53.2 pounds; L. D. Seass, Sullivan, 50.4 pounds; Ira Sellen and Sons, Galva, 49.8 pounds; Cole and Donnelly, Amboy, 48.6 pounds; and Hansen and Bennetham, Cedarville, 48.3 pounds.

The ten high associations for the month, together with the tester and average butterfat production a month, are:

Moultrie, P. J. Smith, 55.4 pounds; Stephenson No. 1, Frank Ochser, 54.3 pounds; Livingston, Ival Lomelle, 52.6 pounds; Douglas, Lodie Knisley, 52.5 pounds; Coles, Gail Stone, 52.5 pounds; Harris, 52.4 pounds; McLean Raymond Dauwalder, 52.2 pounds; Ford, Angus Taylor, 51.9 pounds; St. Clair-Monroe-Randolph, Franz Schultze, 51.6 pounds; and Vermilion-Edgar-Clark, Robert Starr, 51.3 pounds.

Rejection of the proposed settlement came as a surprise to outsiders, who had been assured by Hall and Thompson that the workers would accept it.

"They offered us something, but it was not enough," Thompson said. "We are now prepared to start a strike indefinitely unless the C. I. O. recognizes us."

The workers returned to work under a 45-hour week, with pay increases of more than seven cents an hour for those making 50 cents an hour or more and of five cents an hour for those making less than 50 cents. Conferences on the C. I. O. recognition issue would be continued.

Financial Aid
The mayor, who demanded last week that the union either call sympathy strikes by its members in General Motors plants in the United States or permit the Oshawa local unit to make its own peace with the corporation, had participated in the negotiations that resulted in drafting of a settlement plan and had been most confident that the strikers would return to work today.

But the pickets around the big plant halted rejection of the proposal as a signal to hold out against the company, the mayor and Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn indefinitely. They have been assured of unlimited financial aid from union headquarters in the United States.

High Producing Herds of Cattle Recorded; March
Urbana, Ill., April 20—(UP)—For the second month this year the William Werner herd of purebred Holsteins, Milledgeville, led the state in butterfat production with 60.6 pounds of butterfat a cow. B. Rhode, of the dairy university of Illinois, came second with 59.4 pounds.

Nebraska's System of Legislation is a Disappointment

Springfield, Ill., April 20—(UP)—Criticism of the Nebraska one-house legislature as a "disappointment" was made last night by one of the proponents of the unicameral form of legislature to members of the house of representatives of the Illinois general assembly.

G. E. Price, law in, Neb. attorney, told legislators of the reasons which he said impelled him and U. S. Sen. George W. Norris, Ind.-Neb., to campaign for the one-house form of legislature and of "the failures" that type of assembly has experienced.

"I advocated the one-house legislature predicated on the assumption there would be little legislation except that of an important nature," Price said.

"We found, however, that human nature is the same and the facts are the same. Consequently, the new system has resulted in a flood of bills creating new offices and new commissions."

"Another disappointment was the discovery that instead of decreasing the expense of the legislature, it has been increased partly due to the fact that 43 members must have assistance in carrying out their work."

"We discovered that the 43 members cannot give serious and necessary consideration to all the measures."

Redmond, Ore., April 20—(INS)—A bedraggled little white dog who answers to the name of "Bobby" has a home now for as long as he wishes to remain with the family of Aulton Miller.

Miller fed the dog when he wandered into his back porch looking half-starved. The dog was still haunting the Miller ranch a few days later when the farmer lost his purse while plowing.

A thorough search failed to uncover the purse, and Miller gave it up as lost in the belief that he "turned it under" while plowing.

Bobby ensured himself a life-long home when he trotted up to his benefactor with the missing purse in his mouth.
